

When? How often?

1. Read these statements and note the meaning of never, rarely, sometimes, often, usually, always.

1. My children usually have lunch at school.
2. We never go out on Sunday afternoons.
3. The Silva are always home in the evening.
4. They sometimes go to the movies during the week.
5. They rarely visit their relatives in Bahia.
6. They all often go cycling in the park.

2. Now answer the questions according to the statement above.

1. How often do your children have lunch at school?
 - a. On Mondays.
 - b. On Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.
 - c. On Mondays and Wednesdays.
2. Do you ever go out on Sunday afternoons?
 - a. Yes, once a month.
 - b. Yes, twice a week.
 - c. We do not go out on Sunday afternoons.

3. Are the Silva always home in the evenings?

- a. Yes, once a week.
- b. Yes, every day.
- c. They are not home in the evening.

4. How often do they go to the movies during the week?

- a. Twice a month.
- b. Every month.
- c. Once a week.

5. How often do the Silva visit their relatives in Bahia?

- a. They do not go to Bahia to visit their relatives.
- b. They visit their relatives in Bahia once every five years.
- c. They go to Bahia twice a year.

6. The Silva go cycling in the park

- a. twice a week.
- b. twice a month.
- c. once a month.

3. Rewrite the sentences replacing the underlined phrases for never, usually, always, often, sometimes or rarely, whichever is appropriate.

Example: Cristina and Adriano go to school every day from 7 to 12.
Cristina and Adriano always go to school from 7 to 12.

1. Paulo and Cintia go dancing every Friday.

2. Jaqueline meets her friends once a week.

3. Daniela goes to the movies once a month.

4. Julia and Angela go hiking in the park twice a week.

5. The Silva visit their relatives in Bahia every 5 years.

6. Andrea and Ronaldo do not go to school on Saturdays.

7. Marco watches the 8 o'clock news every day.

4. Read the activities and write the frequency with which they occur in your life.

every day once a week on weekends twice a week never every night every day, except on weekends three times a week rarely always sometimes every other day usually quite often once a month once a year often

go to the beach		go to the theater
go swimming		go shopping
watch series		listen to music
go to the movies		meet friends
have English classes		go hiking
go to work		go dancing
have dinner out		have a barbecue
go surfing		eat out	