

Hear my Story

Q1 Personally I don't believe a word he told us because I think it was just a story.
 (a) big (b) high (c) tall (d) long

Q2 I'm afraid it was the old story with her all over again because she's started arriving late at work again.
 (a) same (b) like (c) similar (d) parallel

Q3 It was a bit of a story really because she told us how her boyfriend had left her, she'd lost her job and she had nowhere to live.
 (a) cry (b) weep (c) tear (d) sob

Q4 I don't really approve of all this discussion about people behind their backs — it's a bit like stories.
 (a) speaking (b) telling (c) saying (d) uttering

Q5 The story that he's just married for the fourth time but I don't really believe it.
 (a) says (b) works (c) sends (d) goes

Q6 To a long story short, I'll come straight to the point and tell you exactly what happened.
 (a) cut (b) reduce (c) snip (d) curtail

Q7 She did write one or two novels but she is best known for her excellent stories.
 (a) brief (b) short (c) abrupt (d) sudden

Q8 It's a brilliant film as far as the images are concerned but the story is a bit weak.
 (a) theme (b) thread (c) tendency (d) line

Q9 He started off from a very simple background and then worked his way up to be President of the bank — a genuine story.
 (a) success (b) famous (c) glamour (d) fame

Q10 In early civilisations it was the story to whom everyone went to hear what had happened in the past.
 (a) speaker (b) talker (c) announcer (d) teller