IV. Read the following passage. Decide whether the statements from 23 to 26 are True or False and choose the correct answer (A, B, C or D) to complete the statements in the questions 27 and 28. (1.5 pts)

Technology has become an important part of teenage life. While it offers many benefits, it also creates challenges. Some people believe that teens are destroying life by overusing technology, but the reality is more complex.

Many teenagers rely on technology for learning, communication, and entertainment. Social media helps them stay connected, while online resources support their education. However, too much screen time can lead to problems like lack of physical activity, poor sleep, and reduced face-to-face communication.

Instead of blaming teens, we should guide them toward healthy technology use. Encouraging balance - such as limiting screen time, spending more time outdoors, and having real-life conversations - can help them enjoy the benefits of technology without losing important life skills.

Technology itself is not the problem; the way we use it matters. By developing good habits, teens can use technology wisely and create a positive future for themselves and society.

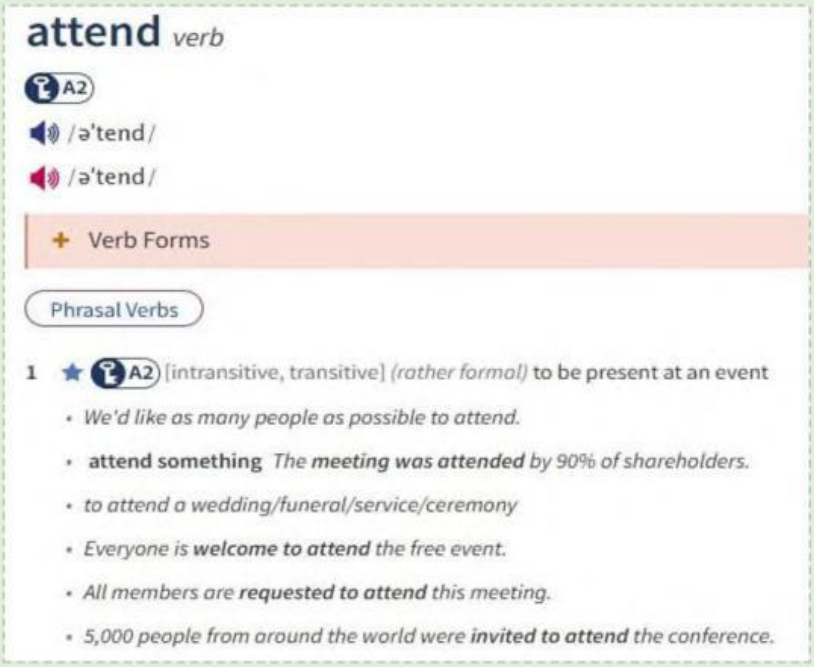

23. Technology always offers a lot of benefits to teens. .....
24. Having low-quality sleep is one of the disadvantages of too much screen time. .....
