DAILY NEWS

FRIDAY, 4TH DECEMBER 2020

A Sixteen-year-old Girl Saves a Lady

BY MARINA GÓMEZ CIDONCHA

According to news souces an old lady walking home after buying some food from the supermarket when a boy attacked her. He hit her head against the ground and she lost her conscience. Luckily, Laura was passing by and helped her.

It appears that the lady was going home and she carried a lot of money in her purse. The boy knew this because he had seen her putting away her money at the supermarket. He followed her and then, on the street, he grabbed her purse and pushed her. She fell down and hit her head against the ground, she also fainted. Laura, who saw everything, quickly called an ambulance a took a picture of the mugger in other to show it to the police.

Apparently, thanks to Laura, the lady is still alive. A few minutes more and maybe she wouldn't be able to tell. Also, thanks to the photo the police could catch the boy. Now Laura and the lady are friends.