Exercise 2 – Conditional Story Completion

Focus: Mixed and narrative-based conditionals

Read the short paragraph and complete it using the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

In the 1940s, Coca-Cola's German branch faced a serious problem. If the war _____ (not start), they _____ (continue) importing syrup from the U.S. But when shipments stopped, Max Keith had to improvise. If he _____ (not be) so determined, the company _____ (collapse). He used food scraps to make a new drink. If the Nazis _____ (not allow) local production, Fanta _____ (not appear) at all.

Imagine what could have happened. If Fanta _____ (not exist), the global soft drink market today _____ (look) very different. And if you _____ (go) to a shop today expecting the original version, you _____ (be) quite surprised—it tasted nothing like modern Fanta! Today, it's hard to believe that if Coca-Cola _____ (not disconnect) from its German branch, the drink we know as Fanta probably _____ (never exist).

Exercise 3 – Rewrite & Reflect (Creative Application)

Rewrite the following real-world statements into conditional sentences. Then, add your own short reflection or opinion below each one.

Example:

◆ Fact: Fanta was invented in Germany due to a lack of Coca-Cola syrup.

🍌 Conditional: If Coca-Cola syrup hadn't run out, Fanta wouldn't have been invented.

1. Coca-Cola stopped sending syrup to Germany.
2. Max Keith decided to keep the company running.
3. The original Fanta used food waste like whey and apple scraps.
4. The German branch created a drink that didn't taste like today's Fanta.
5. The war separated the American and German branches.
6. Fanta disappeared for years after the war.
7. Modern Fanta is sweet, fruity, and colourful.
8. The Nazi regime supported the local Coca-Cola subsidiary.
9. Coca-Cola kept profiting during the war.
10. The original recipe would shock today's consumers.
