

At the Petrol Station

Fill in the gaps in the dialogue with the correct words from the box.

to fill up convenience shop pump self-service diesel engine
petrol station tyre pressure screen wash a full tank

Tom (driver): Excuse me, is this a _____?

Attendant: Yes, it's a _____ station. You fill the car yourself and then pay inside.

Tom: Great. Which _____ can I use?

Attendant: You can use number 4. It's free right now.

Tom: Thanks. I'd like _____ my car.

Attendant: No problem. Do you want just a little or _____?

Tom: A full tank, please. And I need _____, not petrol.

Attendant: Got it. Just make sure to choose the right fuel at the pump.

Tom: Also, do you sell snacks or drinks?

Attendant: Yes, we have a _____ just inside. You'll find snacks, drinks and car products.

Tom: Do you have _____? My windscreen is dirty.

Attendant: Yes, there's _____ on the shelf next to the drinks.

Tom: Great. And can I check the _____ here?

Attendant: Of course. There's a machine next to the air and water area. Just turn off your _____ before checking.

Tom: Thank you very much!

