Name: _____

Date: _____

Prefixes

Read each sentence

Determine which prefix is most appropriate ('il,' 'ir,' 'un,' 'mis' and 'dis.')

Remember that most words that start with 'l' usually take the prefix 'il,' while most words that start with 'r' usually take the prefix 'ir.'

1. Mary felt _____easy during her exam.
2. The word _____regular means not regular.
3. Do not try to _____lead my class.
4. I tried to _____pick my hair.
5. When my clothes were clean, I _____loaded them from the washing machine.
6. She is very _____lucky!
7. Your handwriting is quite _____legible.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8. You should not be thinking _____rational thoughts.

9. I am _____able to tie my shoelaces.

10. Gail was _____responsive to the questions posed.

11. John is a _____respectful little boy.

12. Smoking at your age is _____legal.

13. That statement is quite _____true.

14. I will go to the movies, _____respective of what you think.

15. John made an _____logical statement.

16. That decision you made is _____wise.

17. The old lady was very _____kind.

18. The man did a wonderful _____lustration of a forest.

19. Those magic tricks are _____real!

20. I had to _____pack my suitcase.

LIVEWORKSHEETS