The football match

My name is David and I want to be a football player when I leave school. I have loved football since I was three years old. That's when my dad and my uncle took me to see my first football match.

I play for my school team and we have a match every Saturday at midday. Our team isn't very good, but last Saturday we played our best football match ever. In the morning, my dad gave me a lift to school. He said, 'I'll see you after the match, David. I don't know why, but I think you'll win today!'

When we were waiting for the match to begin, I said to the other players, 'We have to win today.' They agreed with me. 'We can do it!' they said.

When the match began, I kicked the ball and I ran fast. Then I kicked the ball to the player on my left and he kicked it back to me. I looked to my left and to my right and I thought, 'I'm going to score a goal!' I kicked the ball hard, and I scored!

The score at the end of the first half was 1-0. We played well in the second half too, but we didn't score any goals. When my dad saw me after the match he said, 'Well done, David! I knew you could do it!'
