

Coffee & Breakfast Dialogues — Practice Worksheet

1) Coffee shop dialogue — Complete the “You” parts

You:

Barista:

Good morning! What can I get for you today?

You:

Barista:

Sure! Anything else?

You:

Barista:

Yes, we have croissants, muffins, and breakfast sandwiches.

You:

Barista:

Of course! Is that for here or to go?

You:

Barista:

Perfect. That'll be $8.50.

You:

Barista:

Thank you! Have a great day!

2) Formal breakfast order — Complete the “You” parts

You:

Waiter:

Good morning. Of course. Would you like any milk or sugar with that?

You:

Waiter:

Yes, we do. We have fresh pastries, toast, eggs, and fruit. Would you like to take a look?

You:

Waiter:

The croissant with butter and jam is very popular, and our scrambled eggs with toast are also quite good.

You:

Waiter:

Very good. Would you like anything else to drink?

You:

Waiter:

Perfect. I'll bring it right away.

3) To-go coffee order for a group — Complete the “You” parts

You:

Barista:

Good morning! Sure. What would you like?

You:

Barista:

Got it: two large cappuccinos, one medium oat milk latte, and a small black coffee. Anything else?

You:

Barista:

Of course. Would you like those warmed up?

You:

Barista:

Perfect. Is this all to go?

You:

Barista:

Great. That'll be $22.50.

You:

Barista:

Thank you! Have a wonderful day!
