

Put the verbs into the correct form to create mixed conditionals. Use the hints in blue to understand which type of mixed conditionals you need.

1. If I _____ (to speak) French, I _____ (to take) that job in Paris.
(But I don't speak French, so I didn't take the job.)
2. If I _____ (to study) harder, I _____ (to have) a better job now.
(But I didn't study, so I don't have a better job.)
3. If she _____ (to move) to London, she _____ (to live) closer to her family.
(But she didn't move, so she lives far away.)
4. If she _____ (to be) more confident, she _____ (to ask) him out last night.
(But she isn't confident, so she didn't ask him out.)
5. If they _____ (to trust) me, they _____ (to tell) me the truth yesterday.
(But they don't trust me, so they didn't tell me.)
6. If you _____ (to take) that course last year, you _____ (to know) how to code now.
(But you didn't, so you don't know.)
7. If he _____ (to like) spicy food, he _____ (to try) the curry at the party.
(But he doesn't like spicy food, so he didn't try it.)
8. If he _____ (to save) more money, he _____ (to own) a car now.
(But he didn't, so he doesn't own one.)
9. If my parents _____ (to approve) of my career, they _____ (to come) to my graduation.
(But they don't approve, so they didn't come.)
10. If I _____ (to be) taller, I _____ (to join) the basketball team at school.
(But I'm not taller, so I didn't join.)
11. If I _____ (to marry) her, I _____ (to live) in Canada now.
(But I didn't, so I don't live there.)
12. If we _____ (to leave) earlier, we _____ (to be) at the beach by now.
(But we didn't, so we aren't.)
13. If we _____ (to live) closer to the coast, we _____ (to go) surfing last weekend.
(But we don't live near the coast, so we didn't go.)
14. If you _____ (to be) more organized, you _____ (to finish) the project on time.
(But you aren't organized, so you didn't finish it.)

15. If you _____ (to follow) my advice, you _____
(to feel) much better now.
(But you didn't, so you don't.)
16. If he _____ (to care) about the environment, he
_____ (to participate) in the cleanup event.
(But he doesn't care, so he didn't participate.)
17. If I _____ (to have) a driver's license, I _____
(to drive) you to the airport yesterday.
(But I don't have one, so I didn't drive you.)
18. If Mark _____ (to accept) the offer, he _____ (to be) the manager now.
(But he didn't, so he isn't.)
19. If she _____ (to buy) that apartment, she _____
(to live) downtown now.
(But she didn't, so she doesn't.)
20. If they _____ (to train) properly, they _____ (to be) ready for the competition now.
(But they didn't, so they aren't.)