HOW TO START CROWDFUNDING

Crowdfunding is changing the way that businesses work and the way individuals can set up companies. It's a way of funding a specific project by raising donations, usually for a limited period of time.

In a world where we are bombarded with information, great crowdfunding ideas need to be creative and bold to stand out from the rest. Crowdfunding is competitive, so you need to prepare before you start.

Some key pointers for crowdfunding:

- Choose your project. Know what you want to achieve and why. It's important to have this very clear before starting.
- Make a budget. Decide how much money you want to raise. Remember that in addition to money, people can also donate their time and skills.
- Know who your audience is. Who do you want to pay attention to this project? Think about what you have to offer.
- Prepare your promotion. Be creative and make it fun. Ideas are much more motivating to people when they enjoy them. Use your creativity to think of ideas that will inspire. A board game competition is a fun and friendly way to bring people together. It offers competition as well as team-building for a good cause. Or maybe a skills workshop. Invite people to come and learn a new skill.
- Create a great project page. Make it dynamic. Use video, images, and text.
- Choose the best platform. Do some research. There are many platforms out there, so choose one that works for you.
- Keep communication going. Update your funders on the progress of your fundraiser.

1 You can decide what you want to achieve after you start the project. True / False

2 A crowdfunding project is only concerned with raising money. True / False

3 People are more likely to contribute to a project if it's enjoyable. True / False

4 Competition will likely turn away potential donors. True / False

5 Donors want to see the progress of projects they contribute to. True / False

N Read the webpages. Then match the statements to the restaurants: Earth, La Rampa, or Shibuya.

Earth

The restaurant Earth opened in 2016 with one aim: to serve excellent vegetarian food.

We are the only national group of vegetarian restaurants with sites in six major cities across the country. Our team is as important as the food we serve. Without a well-trained and developed staff, Earth wouldn't be where it is today.

Our menus follow the seasons, and our ingredients are fresh and come from local growers. When we change the menus, everyone gets involved and can share an opinion—from the chefs to our customers!

La Rampa

For years, La Rampa has been one of the busiest and best-loved restaurants in the area. Our customers come back again and again for our Argentinean steaks, lamb chops, and burgers, all cooked on an open barbecue.

Our customers love the simple charm of wooden furniture, fresh flowers, and candles. They love being able to see into the kitchen and say hello to the chefs. And they love the informal but always friendly service.

During the summer months, the outdoor patio provides the perfect place to enjoy the wonderful views and to have lunch or dinner with friends.

Shibuya

As part of the Brampton Cooking School, we provide educational opportunities for students who are looking for careers in the restaurant industry. We are a small but award-winning restaurant, dedicated to serving excellent food and drinks.

The restaurant offers a wonderful combination of both modern and classic Japanese dishes. We have traditional fish dishes that come to us from the fishermen of the northern coastal waters of Japan. We also serve amazing contemporary dishes. All meals are prepared in an open kitchen in full view of the diners.

- 1 Our customers can't observe how we prepare the food. _____
- 2 The atmosphere here can be described as simple and informal. _____
- 3 We teach young people how to become chefs. _____
- 4 We have a national chain of restaurants. _____
- 5 Some of our dishes are prepared from very old recipes. _____
