Lipstick in hand, Tahitian tan
In her painted-on jeans
She dreams of fame / money
she changed her name
To one that fits the film / movie screen
She's headed for the big time, that means

CHORUS She's going Hollywood, she's going Hollywood tonight
She's going Hollywood, she's going Hollywood tonight
She's going Hollywood, she's going Hollywood tonight
It's true that you may someday / never ever have that chance again - that chance again, babe Ooh

Westbound Greyhound to Tinseltown
To pursue her movie star plans / dreams, ah Ah, and she's giving hot tricks to men, just to get in
She was taught that that's not clean
She's headed for the good / big time, that means

CHORUS She's going Hollywood

She gave up her life (Ooh) to follow / pursue her dreams (Chance again, babe)
Left behind everyone / everything for the movie scene
Nothing more she could want, she was decided / determined to follow her plan
She wanted Hollywood, she wanted it bad (Woo!)
Now that she got her dream
She became an actress / a star
It all looked so good, but only good from afar Imprisoned in every paparazzi's camera / video, every guy wished they could Now it's back to the real world / reality for Ms. Hollywood (Woo!)

Repeat Verse 1

Repeat Chorus

Westbound Greyhound to Tinseltown
To pursue her movie star dreams
(That chance again, babe)
She's Hollywood (Woo!),
