

1 The Lighthouse is a centre for design and architecture. It contains original objects, interactive touch screens and architectural models.

Opening hours: Monday-Saturday 10.30am-5pm / Sunday 12pm-5pm

Entrance fee: free entry

2 Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum is one of Scotland's most popular free attractions. It houses one of Europe's best art collections (Dalí, Rembrandt, Van Gogh, Gauguin and more).

Opening hours: Monday-Thursday & Saturday 10am-5pm / Friday & Sunday 11am-5pm

Entrance fee: free entry

3 The Riverside Museum houses some of the world's finest vehicles, including boats, cars, skateboards and bikes.

Opening hours: Monday-Thursday & Saturday 10am-5pm / Friday & Sunday 11am-5pm

Entrance fee: free entry

4 The Glasgow cathedral is one of Scotland's most magnificent medieval buildings and a fantastic way to travel back in time.

Opening hours: Monday-Saturday 9.30am-5.30pm / Sunday 1pm-5pm

Entrance fee: free entry

5 The Botanic Gardens is located in the West End of Glasgow. It's the best garden in the city, and it houses the national collection of tree ferns.

Opening hours: 7 days 7am-6pm

Entrance fee: free entry

6 Buchanan Street is a pedestrian boulevard lined with beautiful buildings and some of the city's finest shops.

Opening hours: Monday-Saturday 9am-5pm (shops)

Entrance fee: free entry

Where will you go if you want to see a great painting?

•

Where can you go on a Saturday at 9 :30?

•

What can you visit every day from 7am to 6pm?

•

Where will you go if you like vehicules?

•

What will you see if you visit the Lighthouse?

•

Where will you go if you want to go shopping?

•