Red Town's Families: A Glimpse into the Past!

Place: Red Town's Community Hall

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Date: Saturday

Take a journey into the past to learn about our families and their way of life. This exhibition shows many photos on how generations lived together in extended families, sharing traditions and supporting one another.

What You'll See:

1. Jobs for Men and Women

Men were often the breadwinners, working as farmers or fishermen to provide for their families. Women played essential roles as housewives, managing the household, cooking meals in clay pots, weaving fabric, and raising children.

2. Old Homes and Tools

Visit a model of simple cottages and different stalls for shopping. See items like clay pots, bamboo baskets, and wooden tools used in daily life.

3. Family Life and Traditions

Learn about traditional marriage customs and how families functioned with shared responsibilities and mutual support within an extended family.

This exhibition is a chance to see how Vietnamese families lived and worked in the past. It's perfect for all ages, so bring your family and friends to explore this part of history together!

23. This exhibition shows how generations lived separately, without traditions or support.
24. You can visit the exhibition in the early afternoon on Saturday.
