

1. Solo instrument accompanied by an orchestra.

5. Scottish song sung by women, you can hear a thud in the background while they work the tweed.

Waulking Song

Mouth Music

Blues

Concerto

Aria

2. Period of music between 1600 and 1750. Harpsichord was a common instrument during this period.

6. Unaccompanied songs with Gaelic or nonsense words.

9. Play which has speaking, singing and dancing and is performed on a stage.

3. A solo song from an Opera, can be sung by male or female.

7. Solo bagpipe, usually slow and in Theme and Variation Form.

10. Style of dance music with a strongly syncopated melody and usually played on piano.

4. A Scottish song which tells a story.

8. Music developed from spirituals and work songs. Usually in 4/4 time with a 12 bar structure.

Pibroch

Baroque

Scots Ballad

Musical

Ragtime