

You tossed me like a

You swept me off my feet

And I can'tmy bones

I still count the

I keep going high, she keeps going low

Somethin' feels right now, I know

You don'tfor me 'cause I keep breathin' fire

I won't wait for you 'cause you keep telling lies

I keep goin' high, she keeps goin' low

At the end of the....., she's gone

You played me like a.....

You told me it was fine

But I could feel the

It's been so days

I still feel the pain
