GE7 SUMMER REVISION 9

1. Change the following sentence to passive voice in 2 ways. There's one example.

EXAMPLES	EXPLANATION
I.O. D.O. Active: They gave Spielberg an award. Passive 1: Spielberg was given an award. Passive 2: An award was given to Spielberg.	When an active sentence has two objects, the passive sentence can begin with either object. Notice that if the direct object (an award) becomes the subject of the passive sentence, to is used before the indirect object.

They offered Fiona a well-paid job.
