

Choose the best Clarification

Instruction: Choose the sentence that best clarifies the vague statement.

1. "The study was strange."

- A. The study produced results that contradicted the original hypothesis.
- B. The study was confusing because I didn't get it.
- C. The study was weird.

2. "Participants acted differently."

- A. Participants were being random.
- B. People didn't behave normally.
- C. Participants changed behavior after receiving additional instructions.

3. "The idea didn't make sense."

- A. The concept lacked clear support and was not logically structured.
- B. I didn't understand the idea.
- C. The idea was weird and boring.

4. "The experiment went wrong."

- A. Something bad happened.
- B. It was a mess.
- C. The equipment failed, which affected the accuracy of the data collected.

5. "They had problems with the process."

- A. It didn't work properly.
- B. They faced delays due to unclear guidelines and missing materials.
- C. They didn't like how it was done.

6. "The topic was difficult."

- A. Nobody got it.
- B. The subject involved abstract theories and unfamiliar vocabulary.
- C. It was hard to understand.

7. "There were mixed reactions."

- A. While some participants appreciated the task, others found it confusing or irrelevant.
- B. It was good and bad.
- C. Some people liked it and others didn't.

8. "The results weren't what they expected."

- A. The results were weird and not like before.
- B. The data did not confirm the hypothesis, which indicated a need for further testing.
- C. The results were surprising.