

History of Makeup - Interactive Worksheet

BEFORE WATCHING - Vocabulary and Warm-Up

Task 1. Translate the words (write the Russian meaning):

1. makeup - _____
2. kohl - _____
3. pigment - _____
4. ointment - _____
5. red ochre - _____
6. lead - _____
7. to crush - _____
8. ritual - _____
9. skin - _____
10. status - _____

Task 2. Match the words and meanings (write numbers and letters):

1. kohl
2. pigment
3. skin
4. ointment
5. status

- A. color from nature
- B. soft cream for skin
- C. social position
- D. outer layer of body
- E. black eyeliner in ancient Egypt

Your answers: 1 - ____, 2 - ____, 3 - ____, 4 - ____, 5 - ____

Task 3. Guess the word:

1. Black and used around the eyes - _____
2. Red powder from clay for cheeks - _____
3. Soft thing you put on dry skin - _____
4. White metal used long ago - _____

History of Makeup - Interactive Worksheet

5. Shows if person is rich or poor - _____

WHILE WATCHING - Listening Practice

Task 1. True or False (watch the video and circle T or F):

1. Kohl was used to clean the skin. (T / F)
2. Romans wanted pale skin. (T / F)
3. Lead is dangerous. (T / F)
4. Only women used makeup. (T / F)
5. Makeup was used in religious rituals. (T / F)

Task 2. Fill in the blanks (write what you hear):

1. They used _____ to line their eyes.
2. People crushed _____ to make lipstick.
3. Makeup showed social _____.
4. Theatre actors used _____.
5. Makeup protected them from the _____.

AFTER WATCHING - Practice and Creativity

Task 1. Write a sentence with each word:

- kohl: _____
- pigment: _____
- ointment: _____
- ritual: _____
- status: _____

Task 2. Translate these sentences to Russian:

1. Makeup was part of religious rituals.
2. People crushed red ochre to make lipstick.
3. Rich people showed their status with makeup.
4. Lead was dangerous but used in Roman times.

History of Makeup - Interactive Worksheet

5. Egyptians used pigments from minerals and plants.

Task 3. Mini-project - Draw and Describe

Draw your ancient makeup set. Label the items in English (e.g. kohl, pigment, brush).

Write 2-3 sentences: "This is my ancient beauty box. I use _____ and _____ before rituals."