PART III. Read the passage and answer the questions below.

When's a good time to visit Tokyo?

From March to May, the weather in Tokyo is warm and nice. This is a great time to see cherry blossoms in parks and gardens. You can walk in Ueno Park, have a picnic, and enjoy festivals outside.

From June to August, the weather is hot and wet. It is not a good time for long walks outside, but you can visit museums, cool cafes, or indoor places like teamLab Planets or Odaiba.

From September to November, the weather is cool and fresh. The trees in parks turn red and orange. You can shop in places like Shibuya or Ginza and visit famous places like Tokyo Tower or the Meiji Shrine.

From December to February, Tokyo is cold but it doesn't snow much. There are fewer tourists, and you can see beautiful winter lights, visit hot springs (onsen), and enjoy holiday events. You can also go skiing in mountains like Fuji or Hakuba.

Task 1: Decide whether the following statements are True or False.

1. Cherry blossoms can be seen in Tokyo from March to May. _____
2. It is cold in Tokyo during winter, but it rarely snows. _____
3. Shibuya and Ginza are popular places for shopping. _____
4. Summer in Tokyo is hot and dry. _____
5. Winter is a quieter time for tourism in Tokyo. _____

Task 2: Answer the following questions.

1. What is the weather like in spring? _____
