Phrasal verbs: inseparable, separable or intransitive?

1) Tick the correct option.

Sentence	Separable	Inseparable	Intransitive
She grew up in Canada.
Can you turn off the TV?
We ran into some old friends yesterday.
He looked after his younger brother while their parents were away.
We're going out tonight.
I came across an interesting article.
Please fill out this form before your appointment.
The plane took off an hour late.
We ran out of milk this morning.
They called off the meeting.
They broke up after five years together.
Don't wake up the baby!
I'm counting on you to send me the information by the end of the day
Throw away those old magazines, please.*

2) Look at the sentences you marked as separable. Rewrite them by separating the phrasal verb.

LIVEWORKSHEETS