

TA10. U1. Reading 2

Text 1: The Importance of Sharing Roles in the Family

In many modern families, both parents work outside the home, so sharing household duties is very important. One person might be the (1) _____, earning money to support the family. The other may work part-time or stay home as a (2) _____, managing daily chores and caring for the children.

Tasks like cooking, doing the (3) _____, and cleaning are part of a family's daily (4) _____. Sometimes, these jobs involve (5) _____, such as moving furniture or lifting heavy bags of shopping. Children, even at a young age, should help with age-appropriate tasks. Taking out the (6) _____ or helping with the (7) _____ teaches them about responsibility and teamwork.

Doing housework together helps to (8) _____ the bond between family members. It also allows children to learn the (9) _____ of helping others and being part of a team. A home may not always be (10) _____ clean, but it can still be a warm, caring place when everyone works together.

- | | | | |
|-------------------|------------------|-------------------|----------------|
| 1. A. homemaker | B. cleaner | C. breadwinner | D. visitor |
| 2. A. tourist | B. teacher | C. breadwinner | D. homemaker |
| 3. A. laundry | B. menu | C. breakfast | D. painting |
| 4. A. event | B. plan | C. routine | D. trip |
| 5. A. money | B. heavy lifting | C. reading | D. babysitting |
| 6. A. rubbish | B. groceries | C. laundry | D. dishes |
| 7. A. painting | B. washing-up | C. brushing teeth | D. shopping |
| 8. A. weaken | B. damage | C. strengthen | D. ignore |
| 9. A. game | B. value | C. name | D. activity |
| 10. A. spotlessly | B. rarely | C. noisily | D. carefully |

Text 2: Teaching Good Values at Home

Family is where children first learn how to live, behave, and treat others. Parents play a big role in shaping a child's (1) _____, which will guide them throughout life.

One important lesson is to always be (2) _____. When children are honest and kind, they build trust with others.

Showing (3) _____ by saying "thank you" and offering help is also very important. Even simple actions like helping parents carry (4) _____ or fold clothes can teach children to be helpful.

When a family member is sad or tired, others should try to (5) _____ that person with kind words or actions. Giving (6) _____ in difficult times helps to build love and understanding. Speaking with good (7) _____ and treating others with respect also makes the home a better place.

However, when someone lies or behaves badly, it can (8) _____ relationships. That's why it's important for families to guide each other with care. Doing chores, keeping promises, and helping without being asked all show good character and build strong relationships.

In the end, the greatest (9) _____ of living in a loving family is the emotional safety it provides. And when everyone helps and shows respect, the family becomes a place where deep (10) _____ are formed and grow stronger every day.

- | | | | |
|-----------------|--------------|----------------|-----------------|
| 1. A. future | B. home | C. character | D. school |
| 2. A. truthful | B. cheerful | C. loud | D. smart |
| 3. A. gratitude | B. sadness | C. nervousness | D. power |
| 4. A. toys | B. groceries | C. rubbish | D. letters |
| 5. A. clean | B. cheer up | C. slow down | D. speak louder |
| 6. A. support | B. pressure | C. example | D. silence |
| 7. A. energy | B. health | C. strength | D. manners |
| 8. A. repair | B. damage | C. open | D. describe |
| 9. A. job | B. advice | C. direction | D. benefit |
| 10. A. clothes | B. chores | C. bonds | D. traditions |