

TA10. U1. Family life. Vocabulary MCQs 1

1. Who is considered the breadwinner in most families?
  - A. The person who does the laundry
  - B. The person who earns the main income
  - C. The person who buys groceries
  - D. The person who cleans the house
2. Which household task involves doing the laundry?
  - A. Cleaning the windows
  - B. Watering plants
  - C. Preparing meals
  - D. Washing clothes
3. What does it mean to cheer up a family member?
  - A. Make them laugh
  - B. Make them cry
  - C. Encourage them to exercise
  - D. Help them with their homework
4. Parents often support their children by:
  - A. Ignoring their problems
  - B. Punishing them
  - C. Helping them with schoolwork
  - D. Giving them more chores
5. A good routine can help families to:
  - A. Feel tired all the time
  - B. Stay organized and reduce stress
  - C. Lose important items
  - D. Spend less time together
6. What does it mean to show gratitude in family life?
  - A. Expressing thanks and appreciation
  - B. Asking for favors
  - C. Complaining about chores
  - D. Ignoring help from others
7. Doing the heavy lifting at home refers to:
  - A. Helping with small household tasks
  - B. Carrying and moving large objects
  - C. Tidying up the living room
  - D. Cooking dinner
8. If you are a homemaker, your main role is to:

- A. Earn money for the family
- B. Run a business from home
- C. Take care of household chores and children
- D. Do homework

9. Children can help their parents by doing the washing-up, which involves:

- A. Vacuuming the house
- B. Taking out the rubbish
- C. Organizing the groceries
- D. Cleaning the dishes

10. Being truthful with your family means:

- A. Always telling the truth
- B. Keeping secrets
- C. Telling only good things
- D. Making up stories