ANGELA

Angela is 28 and lives in Brighton, a vibrant coastal city in the UK. She studied graphic design at university, and after graduating, she decided to work as a freelance illustrator. Angela loves art in all its forms — from painting and drawing to street murals — and she spends a lot of her free time visiting galleries or working on personal projects. She's very passionate about social causes and is an active member of the LGTBIQ+ community, often volunteering at local events and helping organize Brighton Pride. Angela lives in a cozy flat with her two cats, Luna and Max. She enjoys traveling, especially to small towns where she can explore local traditions, food, and art scenes. Despite her creative and social life, Angela sometimes feels a bit introverted and enjoys quiet evenings reading or listening to music. She values her close friendships and often hosts small get-togethers where art and good conversation are the main ingredients.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

NICK

Nick is 35 years old and lives in Toronto, Canada. He's a software engineer specializing in artificial intelligence, with a master's degree in computer science. Nick is a practical thinker who enjoys solving technical problems and building apps that can help people in their daily lives. Outside work, Nick loves being in nature: hiking, camping, and kayaking are his favorite summer activities. He shares his home with his husband, Tom, and their energetic golden retriever, Max. Nick is more introverted but enjoys attending tech conferences where he can meet others with similar interests. Music is a big part of his life, especially jazz and electronic genres, and he often plays the guitar to relax. Though not very artistic, Nick appreciates creativity and supports his husband's painting hobby. Traveling is important to him, especially exploring national parks and quiet places where he can recharge.

BETTY

Betty is 50 and lives in a small, sunny town in southern Spain. She never went to university but learned a lot through experience, working as a chef for many years in various local restaurants. Betty is proud of her cooking skills and loves teaching her grandchildren traditional recipes, especially paella and tapas. She lives with her husband, Carlos, and their two friendly dogs, Lola and Paco. Betty enjoys gardening and spends a lot of time outdoors, tending to her flowers and vegetable patch. She has a strong connection to her community and participates in local festivals, always bringing homemade food to share. Traveling isn't something she does often, but she dreams of visiting Japan someday to learn about their cuisine and culture. Betty is very family-oriented and loves spending time with her children and grandchildren, often inviting everyone to big Sunday lunches at her home.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

NORMAN

Norman, 42, lives in a quiet Irish town surrounded by green hills and rolling fields. He studied literature at university and works as a high school English teacher. Norman is deeply passionate about poetry and writing, often spending evenings crafting new poems or attending local poetry slams where he sometimes performs. His students admire his enthusiasm and his ability to make classic literature feel alive and relevant. Norman lives alone and enjoys a peaceful life, though he loves traveling and experiencing different cultures, having visited countries across Europe and Asia. He's a supporter of diversity and inclusion, participating in events and campaigns to promote respect and understanding for everyone. On weekends, Norman likes to read historical novels, drink good coffee, and explore nature trails near his home. He has a small circle of close friends and is known for his warm, thoughtful personality.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

FRANCESCA

Francesca is 23 years old and lives in a busy apartment in New York City. She recently graduated with a degree in performing arts and works as an actress and dancer in several small theatre productions. Francesca is full of energy and creativity, always rehearsing or planning new projects. She is proud of her bisexual identity and often speaks openly about it in her social circles. Francesca lives alone but loves hosting dinner parties for friends, where music, dancing, and lively conversations are guaranteed. Traveling is one of her greatest passions — she has visited Berlin, Rio de Janeiro, and is planning a trip to Tokyo next year. Francesca enjoys the vibrant city life but also loves escaping to quiet nature spots when she can. She's ambitious and dreams of one day performing on Broadway, but she also values close friendships and meaningful connections with people.
