Lost and Found

Last Saturday, Sarah woke up very early because she was planning to go _____ with her _____, Max.

She had prepared everything the night before: _____, snacks, and Max's _____.

Max had been _____ for a while by the time they left home because he was so excited.

When they arrived at the park, Sarah was checking her phone when Max suddenly ran away. She hadn't noticed that she had left the leash _____.

She looked for him everywhere. While she was calling his name, she remembered that Max had run to the _____ once before.

After 20 minutes, she found him. He had been chasing _____ near the water. Sarah was relieved and promised she would be more _____ next time.
