

READING & WRITING - Part 6

Exercise 1

The tallest building in the world is the Burj Khalifa in Dubai. It is 828 meters high, and it has 163 floors. It was built (1) _____ 2010, and it is one of the (2) _____ famous places in the world. There are offices, restaurants, and a hotel inside the building. People can take an elevator to get to (3) _____ highest floor very quickly. At night, the skyscraper has beautiful lights, and many people take photos of (4) _____. (5) _____ you like to go there one day?

Exercise 2

People built castles a long time (1) _____. Castles are usually made of stone, and they have high walls. Today, some castles are museums. People can go inside and learn about history. Some castles are still homes, and people still live (2) _____ them. One of the most famous (3) _____ in the world is Neuschwanstein Castle in Germany. It was built in the 19th century. Another famous castle (4) _____ Edinburgh Castle in Scotland. It has a big rock under it, and people can see the city from (5) _____ top of the castle.

Exercise 3

Dear Harry,
Thank you very much for inviting me to your house for _____ summer. I would love to spend a few days with you. I couldn't _____ you a letter earlier because I had terrible toothache and was in bed for days. The second day, my father took me to the dentist. I was afraid, but my tooth hurt very much, so I agreed to go. When the doctor saw my teeth he _____, 'Michael, I don't think you brush your teeth every day. That's not good!' Everything is OK now and I always brush my teeth in the _____ after breakfast and in the evening before I go to _____. That's all from me. July is only three months away!
See you very soon,
Michael