Stayed in January

Carmela

This was our third trip to the Florida Keys. We love island life, and our stay at this cottage was pleasant. The home was clean and the hosts had provided everything we needed. The only downside was discovering that the "short walk" to the beach was not so short. It took us 20 minutes!

Host's response: We are glad you enjoyed the cottage. We will update our description of the neighborhood!

Stayed in March

Maryam

My husband and I were delighted with this cute little beach house we had found for our family vacation. But we also discovered the kindness of our hosts Alvin and Betsy who helped us get through a medical emergency. We had spent a fun day with the grandkids at the pool, and we were getting ready for bed when George started having chest pains. Our daughter and son-in-law had gone out to dinner, so we called Alvin who came straight over. Betsy stayed with the kids and Alvin drove us to the hospital. His fast thinking saved George's life. We think they deserve far more than a 5-star review, so we are giving them 10 stars!

Host's response: Maryam, we were happy to help, and we are so glad that George is better!
