A week in the life of a student studying overseas

A: About me

My name is Darcey and I'm from Australia, but I live in the UK. I'm a student at university in Liverpool. I'm studying fashion design and I think it is a very interesting subject. In the future, I want to work as a fashion designer in a large company maybe in Singapore or Japan.

B: My daily life

My life in Liverpool is a little different from my life in Australia, but I like it. I have classes at university three days a week, on Monday morning, Tuesday morning and Thursday morning so I get up early. On Wednesday and Friday, I get up later and study at home in my student flat or I go to the university library and study there. Sometimes it is difficult to study at home because my flatmates play music or video games.

C: Communicating with my family

I don't spend time with my family because they live in Australia, but we often send messages and my parents and I always talk online on Saturday or Sunday. I check my messages and emails every day because my sister and my friends in Australia like sending me some pictures of their lives.

D: My free time

At weekends, I sometimes go to parties with my friends or we cook dinner together. We hardly ever go out to restaurants because they are expensive, but I like going for coffee or lunch with my friends. We usually go to cafés with student menus and we eat some pasta or rice dishes. I hardly ever go shopping because I do all my shopping online.
