

ADJECTIVES - ADVERBS

High – highly. Reading 1

Choose high or highly to complete each sentence.

Text 1: Mountain Adventure

Last summer, I went on a hiking trip with my friends. We climbed a _____ (1) mountain that offered amazing views. The air was fresh and the trees grew _____ (2) on the slopes. We had trained for weeks, and our coach was _____ (3) impressed with our performance.

One of my friends, Tom, is a _____ (4) skilled climber. He was able to reach the top in just two hours. The path was steep and the temperature was _____ (5) even though it was summer. At the top, we took pictures and felt _____ (6) proud of ourselves.

We met another group that came from a _____ (7) recommended tour agency. They told us it was a _____ (8) rated hiking route on travel websites. We all agreed that the effort was worth it. It was a _____ (9) successful day, and I would _____ (10) recommend the experience to others.

Text 2: Music Festival Fun

Last weekend, I went to a music festival in my city. It was held in a field with a stage built _____ (1) above the ground. The music was loud and played at a very _____ (2) volume. The bands were _____ (3) talented and kept the crowd excited all night.

One of the singers was _____ (4) praised for her voice. She sang so _____ (5) that people cheered for minutes after each song. The lights above the stage were hung _____ (6) to shine across the entire area. Some food trucks were parked nearby and were _____ (7) popular among the visitors.

My friends and I had a _____ (8) enjoyable time together. We danced, laughed, and ate tasty snacks. The event was _____ (9) organized, and I felt the organizers did a great job. I now _____ (10) recommend going to this festival next year.