

elite, consumption, demand for, merchant, guard, rival, overland, have monopoly of, virtual, exorbitantly, couple something with something, spur, eager, cultivation, ethnic group, peel, pliable, curl, associate with, tribute

1. The Portuguese managed to _____ the spice trade in the Indian Ocean during the 16th century.
2. These sandals are made of _____ leather, which makes them very flexible and comfortable.
3. She paid an _____ high price for the bag—much more than it was worth.
4. You should _____ your password with a two-step verification process for better security.
5. The long journey was done _____, crossing deserts and mountains with camels.
6. Cinnamon sticks tend to _____ when they dry, forming their signature spiral shape.
7. The soldiers were ordered to _____ the palace gates during the royal ceremony.
8. That museum is _____ empty—it seems like no one has visited in days!
9. In ancient China, neighboring states were required to pay annual _____ to the emperor.
10. The growing middle class led to an increased _____ luxury goods like silk and tea.
11. She's very _____ to try the new dish after seeing it featured in a cooking show.
12. Rice _____ requires flat land, water, and specific weather conditions.
13. The fruit is easy to _____ and is often used in desserts.
14. The clothing style is traditionally worn by a specific _____ in Southeast Asia.
15. The two companies have been fierce _____ in the mobile phone market for years.
16. He is a wealthy _____ who sells rare gemstones around the world.
17. These training programs are designed for the business _____, not for beginners.
18. Higher prices tend to _____ innovation as companies compete to provide better products.
19. Fast food _____ has increased sharply in the last few decades.
20. In many cultures, owls are often _____ wisdom or knowledge.