

What Are Subject and Object Pronouns?

 Pronouns are words that take the place of nouns. They help us avoid repeating the same nouns again and again.

✓ The Subject Pronouns do the action in a sentence. (I, you, he, she, it, we, they)

Examples:

- He runs fast.
- They are playing soccer.
- We love reading books.

✓ The Object Pronouns receive the action in a sentence. (me, you, him, her, it, us, them)

Examples:

- The teacher helped me.
- I saw her at the park.
- They invited us to the party.

Underline the subject pronouns and circle the object pronouns in the passage.

Manny Pacquiao is a great boxer from the Philippines. He has won many fights and trained very hard. Many people look up to him.

They watch his matches and cheer for him. We admire his courage and strength. His story teaches us to keep trying. They say that he is one of the best boxers ever. Manny gives hope to them, and fans everywhere are proud of him.