A Day in the Life of a Hard-Working Student

Anna is a hard-working high school student who lives in a small town not too far from the city. Her house is close to the train station, so she can get to school fast and easily. She usually leaves home early in the morning to catch the 6:45 train, even though her classes don't start until 8:00. She prefers to be there shortly before class begins so she can review her notes.

Lately, Anna has been feeling tired because she studies very hard and sleeps only a few hours a night. She hardly has time to relax or go out with friends. Despite her busy schedule, she performs well at school and is known for always doing the right thing. Her teachers think highly of her and often say that she sets a good example for others.

Anna's best friend, Lisa, lives nearby, and they walk home together in the afternoons. They talk closely about their problems, goals, and dreams. One day, they got lost on a hike and ended up taking the wrong path. But thanks to Anna's sense of direction, they found the right trail and headed straight back to town.

Anna may be young, but her future looks bright. If she keeps working this hard, she will shortly achieve her dream of becoming a doctor.
