☐ Story: Respect Is Always Important

Alex is a respectful and responsible boy. At home, he listens to his parents and speaks kindly to everyone. He helps with small chores and takes care of his dog. His parents always say, "Good treatment starts at home."

At school, Alex treats his classmates with respect. He accepts differences and never makes fun of others. He shares his materials and follows the school rules. He uses polite words like "excuse me" and "you're welcome."

In public places, like the park or the street, Alex is careful and respectful too. He throws trash in the bin, waits his turn, and follows safety rules. He knows that being respectful is not only for the classroom — it's for all places and all people.

Alex believes that treating others well helps everyone live in peace and harmony.

- ☐ Alex speaks kindly and listens at home.
- ☐ Alex laughs at his classmates when they are different.
- ☐ Alex always uses polite words at school.
- ☐ In the street, Alex throws trash on the ground.
- ☐ Alex believes respect should only be used at school.
- ☐ Respect helps people live in peace.
