Last weekend, my family took a trip to Pattaya. We stayed at a small hotel near the beach. In the morning, we walked along the shore and watched the sunrise. After breakfast, we visited the Pattaya viewpoint and took many pictures. In the afternoon, we went to the Ripley's Believe It or Not Museum. My younger brother didn't enjoy the scary room, but I loved it! We ate dinner at a seafood restaurant and returned to the hotel feeling very tired. It was a fun and exciting day.

Last weekend, I traveled to Pattaya with my cousins. We stayed at a beachfront hotel and watched the sunset from our balcony. On Saturday, we visited the famous Sanctuary of Truth, which amazed us with its wooden carvings. In the evening, we tried seafood at a local restaurant and listened to live music. Before we left, I bought souvenirs for my friends and took many photos to remember the trip.
