

Last week, there was a lot of news about different types of (1) _____ happening in the city center. In one case, a woman was walking down the street when someone on a motorbike suddenly grabbed her bag. This is known as (2) _____. In another incident, a man was caught (3) _____ in a supermarket—he tried to hide some items in his backpack without paying.

The police also reported a case of (4) _____ at a local bank. The thief broke in at night and stole money from the (5) _____. In another case, someone used a stolen identity to commit (6) _____ by using another person's credit card details online.

To report any of these incidents, citizens are advised to call the (7) _____ immediately.

