

Adjectives

Task 20

- 1) The most (influence) critics were committed to the need for (mass) reform.
- 2) He's calling for (urgency) consultations between the government and the oil industry to resolve the problem.
- 3) He's (shame) of the way he behaved last night - he ruined the evening.
- 4) My kids are (fright) of the dark.
- 5) They landed on the little (grass) strip.
- 6) A lot of (adolescence) girls suffer from low self-esteem.
- 7) (Relief) yet (confusion), I tried to reconstruct the (act) event.
- 8) He gave a (picture) account of his trip to London.
- 9) A lot of people get (confusion) by rules and regulations.
- 10) I agree, but it must be (efficiency) and (mean) work.
- 11) He didn't give me a (satisfy) explanation.
- 12) In (distance) prospect I look forward it greatly, as a break from the (monotony), (boredom) routine of writing.
- 13) We maintain (activity) links with other (Europe) universities.
- 14) It's (curiosity) that she left without saying goodbye.
- 15) It was (shame) of him to surrender.
- 16) The public is being fed (contradiction) messages about the economy.
- 17) It would be an industry based on (renew) resources.
- 18) My tummy was (pain), and I felt so (misery).
- 19) Some problems in (parent) attachment can be corrected and resolved over a relatively short time.
- 20) The money will go to a (worth) case.
- 21) Two theories were then widely (currency).
- 22) That was a (delight) meal, thank you.
- 23) It's (marvel) what they can do these days.
- 24) The (environment) damage caused by the (chemistry) industry is still great.
- 25) She suffered from (terror) panic attacks.