

Unit 5 Lesson 2 Listen, read and find

TAPESCRIP

Guide: Now are you ready?

Pupils: Yes...yes...

Guide: Let's start our tour of the museum then. Well, here as the name of the museum tells you, you can find information about the history of transport in London. Let's turn right.... Look, here you can see the first trams. In Victorian time, horses used to....

Pupils: Horses??

Guide: Yes, that's true. Horses used to pull the trams and buses. This is an original horse omnibus.

Pupils: Oh.....

Guide: Come on kids, in this part of the museum you can see the buses and trains people used to have in the old days. You can climb on a train and pretend to be a conductor or put yourself in the driver's seat of the London double-decker bus. There are things to push and pull, lights to switch on and off, buttons to buzz.....

Pupils: Oh....oh....let me try...

Guide: Let's go straight in the next room. ...Look! Here we are standing in front of some original steam trains. You can get in a train simulator where you can have the feeling of driving the train yourselves. Now, are you tired?

Pupils: Yes...yes....

Guide: Let's play. There are all kinds of games. Let's play the treasure hunt in the rooms of the museum. After that, you can visit the museum gift shop, which has copies of some best posters and books for the transport enthusiast or visit the café overlooking Covent Garden for a range of delicious snacks and drinks.
