

ENGLISH ID 2 UNIT 2.5.

2.5. What do you carry in your pockets?

1 2.10 Order the pieces of paper, 1–12, to make a joke. Can you guess the ending? Listen to check.

<input type="checkbox"/> A man and his wife were having some...	<input type="checkbox"/> ... message: Please wake me up at 4:30 a.m. He put the message on the TV and...
<input type="checkbox"/> ... he woke up and looked at his alarm clock. It was 10:30 a.m.!	<input type="checkbox"/> ... problems in their marriage and they weren't...
<input type="checkbox"/> ... to watch her favorite drama show every evening. One day, the man came...	<input type="checkbox"/> ... talking to each other. Their house was completely...
<input type="checkbox"/> ... the next morning. But he didn't want to talk to his wife, so he wrote a...	<input type="checkbox"/> A piece of paper was lying on the table next to his alarm clock. It said:
<input type="checkbox"/> ... he went to bed. In the morning...	<input type="checkbox"/> ... home from work. He was tired and he had to catch a plane early...
<input type="checkbox"/> _____	<input type="checkbox"/> ... silent. Only the TV made noise at night because the woman liked...

2 2.11 Listen to some more anecdotes and respond with one of these phrases after the beep.

No! You're joking!

Oh dear. That's bad luck.

Wow! That is lucky.

3 2.12 Listen to a firefighter from the story "Strange Things Happen". At each beep, choose the best question.

- a What happened?
 Where did you go?
- b Where was the house?
 Why was she on fire?
- c They were in her pocket?
 The stones caught fire?
- d Is she OK?
 Can you buy these stones?

4  2.13  Make it personal Listen and match answers a–e to the questions.

- Did you read the news today?
- Is crime a big problem in your area?
- What kind of TV shows do you like?
- Do you remember the 2011 tsunami?
- Do you know any funny stories?

- a No, it's very safe where I live.
- b Nah, I can never remember jokes. But my brother knows a lot.
- c Yeah, the front page had a story about politics.
- d Yeah, I saw it on the news. It was terrible.
- e Hmm. I like comedies and dramas.

Connect

Write your own answers to the questions in 4 and send them to a friend or your teacher.