

Task 6. Read the texts below. For questions (28-32) choose the correct answer (A, B, C or D).

Once upon a time a king and a queen gave a magnificent party in honor (28) _____ the christening of their new-born son, Prince Rolandor. To this party the royal parents took good care to invite every single fairy in Fairyland, for they knew very well the unhappy consequences of (29) _____ - to invite fairies to christenings. When all the invitations (30) _____ - , the Queen went down to the kitchen to superintend the cooking of the master-dainty of the feast, a huge strawberry-tart.

The morning on (31) _____ the grand ceremony was to take place arrived. At half-past ten the Court Astrologer, who was master of ceremonies, gave the order to form in line; and at ten minutes to eleven the splendid procession started for the church. The road (32) _____ with the King's vassals shouting, "Hurrah, hurrah!" Countless little elves with gauzy wings watched from the branches of the trees; and the great cathedral bells went clang, bang, clang, as merrily as could be.
