Subject : Monthly expenses

My dear Suzie,

Father had transferred your monthly allowance into your account. He gave you extra because this is your birthday month. You may need it. You can celebrate your birthday with one or two of your close friends. However, do be careful with your expenses. If the need does not arise, you can just save the money for future use. We'll celebrate your birthday when you come back during the school break next month.

With love,
Mom
