READING COMPREHENSION

Read the text and complete the exercises below.

DELICIOUS BITES RESTAURANT

One month ago, something strange started happening at a small restaurant called "Delicious Bites". It used to be a very popular place. Families came on weekends, students came after school, and even tourists loved it. But now, the tables are empty, and the customers are disappearing.

Mr. Lopez, the owner of the restaurant, is very worried. "The food is still good," he said. "We have the same chef and the same recipes. But people don't come anymore. I think we have a big problem."

Some loyal customers gave their opinion. They said the restaurant is always the same. The menu hasn't changed in years, the music is old, and the walls look boring. "It's not exciting anymore," one customer said. "There's nothing new."

Mr. Lopez didn't know what to do. He tried offering a small discount, but it didn't help. He even added two new dishes to the menu, but nobody noticed. He needed a creative solution. He contacted the city school to ask to students for innovative ideas and solve the problem.
