

Open the brackets, using appropriate form of conditional mood after "I wish / If only"

1. I wish I _____ (be) stronger so that I could take part in the competition.
2. The Smiths live in the village, but they wish they _____ (live) in the city in future.
3. I wish he _____ (can visit) my grandmother yesterday but he had a job interview.
4. Kate wished she _____ (not to watch) this frightening movie again.
5. Matthew didn't go to university after school. At present, he wishes he _____ (go) there.
6. I wish you _____ (read) scientific books more in future.
7. If only Ted _____ (have) the chance to travel when he was a teenager.
8. I wish I _____ (not to lend) him money last week.
9. Maria wished she _____ (not to eat) many candies at the party yesterday.
10. I wish I _____ (know) German. I would have the opportunity to study there now.
11. If only we _____ (spend) more time together next summer, my dear.
12. If only Jack _____ (buy) a lot of unnecessary things all the time.
13. If only their daughter _____ (pass) the RNE successfully. Then she will live in Moscow.
14. If only John _____ (not be) married to Dasha, I would marry her myself.
15. I wish I _____ (have) enough sleep last night.
16. If only I _____ (forget) all the money at home. I really need it now!
17. I hate her! I wish I _____ (be) acquainted with her.
18. If only Martin _____ (win) the next lottery! He'll stop buying tickets!
19. I wish he _____ (be) upset after such a great failure yesterday.
20. I wish John _____ (get) on well with his friends after yesterday's quarrel.
21. The weather is going to be horrible. If only it _____ (be) better next week.
22. If only my mother _____ (not see) me kissing Alice! But she stood watching us for half an hour!...
23. If only I _____ (buy) the correct present for my girlfriend! She is not speaking to me after a bunch of yellow flowers...
24. I wish you _____ (do) this translation for the next lesson for me.

