A bread toaster

I am sure all of you have used a bread toaster (0) on one time or another. Do you know really well what it (1) was? Well, a toaster is a modern electrical appliance. It is found in (2) more Malaysian homes today. It is of course used to toast bread. The toaster uses heat to (3) toasting bread. Usually two slices of bread can be put into a toaster at one time. The toaster is (4) switch on and the heating device in the toaster browns the bread. (5) Its heat in the toaster can be adjusted. If you like the bread to be slightly brown, then (6) low the heat of the toaster. If you like your bread well brown and crisp, then increase the (7) heating of the toaster. Crisp, toasted bread is delicious (8) in jam, margarine or kaya. It is small wonder that many young children have taken a fancy to it.
