

EXPRESSIONS WITH "MIND"

Task One. Match the idioms with the definitions. Write the letter.

|                                      |   |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| 1. That's a weight off my mind _____ | A. What are you thinking about?           |
| 2. Would you mind ...? _____         | B. Please don't pay attention to me.      |
| 3. You're out of your mind! _____    | C. I decided something different.         |
| 4. Never mind _____                  | D. Forget it, it doesn't matter.          |
| 5. Mind your own business _____      | E. Choose! Decide!                        |
| 6. Don't mind me _____               | F. That's private - don't ask.            |
| 7. I've changed my mind. _____       | G. I'm fine with either option.           |
| 8. Mind out! _____                   | H. I couldn't remember anything.          |
| 9. Make up your mind! _____          | I. Warning! Be careful.                   |
| 10. I don't mind. _____              | J. You're crazy.                          |
| 11. What's on your mind? _____       | K. I'm asking you for something politely. |
| 12. My mind went blank. _____        | L. I'm relieved.                          |

Task Two. Read the sentences and choose the correct expression.

1. Your friend helps you finish a difficult project, and you feel relieved. What could you say?
2. You are walking down the street and a cyclist is coming very fast towards you.

Your friend shouts:

3. You can't decide whether to go to the party or stay home.

Your friend says:

4. In an exam, you suddenly can't remember anything.

How do you describe this?

5. Someone asks you if they can borrow your pen. You want to say "It's fine."

You reply:

6. Your friend is being very curious and asking personal questions.

You say:

7. Your little brother is upset because he broke a toy. You want to tell him not to worry. You say:

8. You see your classmate doing something very dangerous.

You think:

9. You walk into the room while your classmates are working. You don't want to disturb them, so you say:

10. You're stressed because something is worrying you a lot. Your friend asks:

11. You told your friends you wanted pizza, but now you decide you prefer sushi. What do you say?

12. You want to ask your teacher politely if you can open the window. You say:

