

TIME IDIOMS

1. A stitch in time (saves nine)

a) fixing something nine times to make it perfect

b) taking immediate action to prevent bigger problems later

c) waiting for the right moment to act

2. All in good time

a) used for telling someone that time is running out, so act quickly

b) used for telling someone that good times are always short-lived

c) used for telling someone to wait for something and not try to make you hurry

3. Before your time

a) Something that happened before you were born or involved

b) Being ahead of schedule or early

c) Doing something before others expect it

4. In the nick of time

a) Just in time to prevent something bad from happening

b) Being late but still managing to succeed

c) Taking your time to do something carefully

5. Once in a blue moon

a) Something that happens very rarely

b) Something that happens every month

c) Something that happens unexpectedly

LIVEWORKSHEETS