

Reported Speech

Directions: Read each sentence in direct speech. Change each direct speech sentence to reported speech by choosing the correct reported speech form.

1. “I am tired,” John said.

- A) John said that he is tired.
- B) John said that he was tired.
- C) John said that I was tired.
- D) John said he were tired.

2. “I will help you,” Maria said.

- A) Maria said that she would help me.
- B) Maria said that she will help you.
- C) Maria said that I would help her.
- D) Maria said she would help you.

3. “I have finished my homework,” Paul said.

- A) Paul said that I had finished my homework.
- B) Paul said that he has finished his homework.
- C) Paul said that he had finished his homework.
- D) Paul said that he finished his homework yesterday.

4. Lisa said, “I like apples.”

- A) Lisa said that she liked apples.
- B) Lisa said that she likes apples.
- C) Lisa said that he liked apples.
- D) Lisa said she like apples.

5. Tom said, “I am going to the store now.”

- A) Tom said that I was going to the store then.
- B) Tom said that he is going to the store now.
- C) Tom said that he was go to the store now.
- D) Tom said that he was going to the store then.

6. “I can play the piano,” Anna said.

- A) Anna said that she can play the piano.
- B) Anna said that she plays the piano.
- C) Anna said that I could play the piano.
- D) Anna said that she could play the piano.

7. “We watched a movie,” David said, “and then we went to sleep.”

- A) David said that they had watched a movie and then they had gone to sleep.
- B) David said that we watched a movie and then we went to sleep.
- C) David said that they watched a movie and then they go to sleep.
- D) David said that they had watched a movie and then they went to sleep.

8. Emma said, “I don’t like coffee.”

- A) Emma said that she not liked coffee.
- B) Emma said that she doesn’t like coffee.
- C) Emma said that she didn’t like coffee.
- D) Emma said that I didn’t like coffee.

9. “The test is hard,” The teacher said.

- A) The teacher said that the test isn’t hard.
- B) The teacher said that the test was hard.
- C) The teacher said that the test is hardly.
- D) The teacher said that hard the test will be.

10. Sarah said, “I love my husband.”

- A) Sarah said that she loved my husband.
- B) Sarah said that she loves your husband.
- C) Sarah said that I love my husband.
- D) Sarah said that she loved her husband.