I. Type the intensive/ reflexive pronoun that will complete the sentence (first blank). Identify whether it is intensive/ reflexive (second blank).

1. The elders _____ preserve and pass on their traditions to the younger generation. _____
2. The eldest woman of the tribe, a known, indigenous leader, introduced _____ before sharing about cultural stories. _____
3. The indigenous leaders speak about the importance of protecting their ancestral land, _____. _____
4. Indigenous communities take pride in expressing _____ through music and dance. _____

II. Complete the statement with the appropriate transitional device/ modal. Choose from the choices

A. Choices: therefore, moreover, consequently, likewise, for example

1. The indigenous people continue to practice weaving; _____ they pass the tradition to the younger generation.
2. The tribe planned the project carefully; _____, they still faced challenges in carrying it out.
3. Many younger tribemates joined the weaving activities; _____, some volunteered to learn how to dance.

B. Choices: must, could, would, should, can

4. When the elders were young, they _____gather around fire to listen to stories about their ancestors.
5. Indigenous leaders have strong faith that young people_____ help preserve their culture through songs and dance.
6. The children were taught that they _____ listen carefully when the indigenous elders are sharing their stories.

LIVEWORKSHEETS