1.What are the speakers mainly discussing?

A. The student's difficulties locating sources for a research project

B. The topic of the student's research project

C. The student's request to visit a particular part of the library

D. Procedures for requesting different editions of a book

2.Why is the student unable to use later editions or reproductions of a book he mentions?

A. The later editions contain errors.

B. Professor Gray specified the use of a particular edition.

C. The later editions must be requested from another library.

D. Reproductions typically omit the specific material he needs.

3.Why is the student reluctant to contact Professor Gray?

A. He already has disturbed her several times during her time away from campus.

B. He does not feel comfortable about asking her for another favor.

C. He does not know her e-mail address.

D. He wants to surprise her with a completed project.

4.What does the woman imply about the rules regarding Special Collections?

A. The rules are unfair to the students.

B. The rules are in place to protect the books.

C. The rules are determined by the professors.

D. The rules have changed since the previous semester.

5.What does the woman mean when she says this:

A. She has been in a similar situation herself.

B. She will help the student solve his problem.

C. Shen has often heard this kind of story from students.

D. She thinks the student should try to understand her situation.

LIVEWORKSHEETS