- Read and identify details in a text about starting a new school year.
- Listen and identify the specific information in a conversation about two students doing a class survey.
- Ask and answer questions about school experiences using the present perfect.

1. THE FIRST READING (Learner's Book, page 30)

My first few weeks at secondary school have gone well. I've enjoyed doing new subjects like chemistry. It's fun learning in a lab. I've also joined the school jazz band. I play the trumpet and we practise after school on Wednesdays. I've played volleyball, too. And I've made a lot of new friends.

Anisha

In the first week, I got into trouble when I was late for a lesson because I couldn't find the classroom. I've enjoyed English and I gave a presentation in history last week. It went well. I've played football but we haven't had any matches yet. I've got lots of new friends now. So far, so good!

Felipe

a. How long have Anisha and Felipe been at their new school?

b. What has Anisha done outside lessons?

c. What was difficult for Felipe at first?

d. What went well for Felipe last week?

e. What do you think Felipe means by 'so far, so good'?
