

PRICE TAG (by Jessie J)

Seems like _____ got a price.¹
I wonder how they _____ at night²
when the sale comes first and the truth comes _____.
Just _____ for a minute and _____.

Why is everybody so _____?
Acting so damn³ _____?
Got shades⁴ on your _____
and your _____ so high that you _____ even have a good time.

Everybody look to the _____.
Everybody look to the _____.
Can you _____ that, yeah?
We're paying with _____ tonight.

It's not about the money, money, money.
We don't _____ your money, money,
money.
We just wanna make the _____ dance.
_____ about the price tag.⁵

Ain't about the uh cha-ching, cha-ching.⁶
Ain't about the b-bling, b-bling.
Wanna make the world dance.
Forget about the price tag.

We need to take it _____ in time
when _____ made us all unite,
and it wasn't low blows⁷ and video hoes.⁸
Am I the only the one getting _____?

Why is everybody so obsessed?
Money can't buy us _____.
Can we all slow down and _____ right now?
I _____ we'll be feeling alright.

Everybody _____ to the left.
Everybody look to the right.
Can you feel that, yeah?
We're paying with love _____.

It's not about the money, money, money.
We don't need your money, money, money.
We just wanna make the world dance.
Forget about the price tag.

This is a "cover", which means that it is not the original singer performing, rather a group called Band of Voices. It is an a capella group, which means that there are no instruments.

- ¹ The expression—"everyone has a price"—means that everyone can be persuaded to do something dishonest or immoral, if they are offered a large enough amount of money.
 - ² This is another common expression: "I wonder how he sleeps at night". It refers to a person's conscience keeping him or her awake because that person has done something dishonest or immoral.
 - ³ The word damn is not a polite word. As a verb, it means to be condemned by God to suffer eternal punishment in hell. As an adjective, it is used for emphasis or to express anger or frustration.
 - ⁴ The word shades is a slang expression for sunglasses. It comes from shade, meaning "shelter from direct sunlight".
 - ⁵ A price tag is a label showing the price of an item.
 - ⁶ Cha-ching is an example of onomatopoeia. Onomatopoeia is when a word is formed because of the sound associated with an idea or thing. A lot of bird names are onomatopoeic; for example, the cuckoo is named for the sound the bird makes. Other words that are onomatopoeic include: boom for the sound of an explosion and honk for the sound of a car horn. Cha-ching is the sound that old cash registers made when money was added to the machine.
 - ⁷ A low blow is a comment or action that is unfair or unkind. The expression comes from boxing, where hitting an opponent below the belt is against the rules of the game.
 - ⁸ I have to explain this word in person / in class, but don't use it. It is not a polite word.
